EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Eureka Leader, referring to the possible retirement of Sherman and promotion of Sheridan to the command of the army, remarks: "Sheridan is a very dare-devil in the courage of the field of battle, but it would certainly be ridiculous in the eyes of trained military observers, as it is inexpedient in the eyes of those who do not follow arms as a profession, to see a rude, hot-headed, impulsive soldier elevated to a command where tact, calmness and nicey of judgment and a high order of intelligence are the first requisites. Whatever Sherman's faults are, he is a man of brains and Phil. Sheridan is not."

A quantity of opium arrived on a China steamer last Tuesday, at San Francisco, and the brokers, on tendering the duty fees, were completely taken aback by the refusal to accept and the information that the Government had ordered not only that no more opium shall be landed, but that the 100 packages now in bond are liable to seizure, and will be taken by the custom authorities. This action is based on a clause of the new Chinese treaty positively prohibiting the importation of opium into the United States by Chinese subjects.

Chili has given Uncle Sam a slap in the face, so to speak, by prescribing how American naval officers at Callao shall receive their mail matter. The old gentleman will soon become so accustomed to insults that he will naturally back up to be kicked by any little one-horse nation that wants to be pert.

Guiteau's book is out. In the preface he says: "The Truth is my contribution to the civilization of the race, and I ask for its careful attention to the end that many souls may find a Savior." Instead of showing others how to find a Savior, it behoves him to be hunting one for himself, just about this time.

The San Francisco Spirit of the Times hoists the name of James G. Blaine as the nominee for President in 1884. "The early bird" seldom "catches the worm," when the bird is a politician seeking the Presidential nomination.

Up to April 15, 1882, there has been transmitted from America through the Irish World to the Irish Land League the enormous sum of $300,441.71.

WESTERN TELEGRAMS.

Spring Campaign Begun.

TUCSON, April 21.

The Star's special from Fort Thomas to-day says: Lieutenant Sands with troop B of the Sixth Cavalry had a running fight with the Indians about noon to-day. They killed one Indian and captured one horse, which they brought to the fort this evening. As there was over a hundred Indians he had to retreat, not having but about thirty men in his command. The troops will likely start out again to-morrow. Mr. McMurren says he was shot at to-day by Indians about one mile from this place.

Brevet Chinamen.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.

It is ascertained that among the signers of the petition from New York praying the President to veto the Chinese bill are the following corporations and firms that are represented in this city, viz.: The German-American and Phoenix Insurance Companies of New York; E. S. Jeffreys, dry goods merchant; Seligman & Company, bankers; A. A. Lowe & Company, importers.

Archie Borland in a Critical Condition.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.

The latest report from Archie Borland is that his condition is critical, and meningitis is feared.

Brace of Jolly Cut-Throats.

NEW YORK, April 22.

The World in an editorial to-day invites the immediate attention of Governor Cornell to the horrible spectacle presented on Thursday night, in that portion of the City Prison under charge of the Sheriff, of a long-continued game at cards between one murderer who was to be executed yesterday, and another murderer who is to be executed next Friday.

Texas Train Robbers Make a Haul.
DALLAS, Texas, April 21.

The Texas train robbers have scored another signal victory. They came out of their rendezvous in the canyon and mountain fastnesses of the upper Brazos country last night, and when the train from San Francisco, on the Texas Pacific road, pulled up at Ranger Station, just west of the canyon spur, they took possession. There were five robbers--four bearded youths, dressed like cowboys, and the fifth, the leader, a stalwart man, with the appearance of a desperado, wearing a heavy red shirt and a slouched hat. None were masked. All were armed to the teeth with Winchester rifles and Colt's improved revolvers. Four of the gang corralled the conductor, George Hare, the fireman, engineer and both brakemen alongside the engine, while the red-shirted leader bounded into the express car and commanded the messenger to throw up his hands, which was complied with as the muzzle of a pistol was presented to his face. The colored porter took in the situation, and made a dash for the passenger coach and roused three Texas Rangers, who had been traveling on the trains several weeks as guards, in anticipation of a robbery. When they reached the outside the robbers opened fire on them, keeping the captive train-men as a breastwork. Of course, the Rangers returned the fire, but without effect, as to do so would have killed the trainmen. Consequently, none of the combatants were hit, but a stray bullet struck a telegraph operator who was treating to his office, making a slight mound on the back of one of his hands. After the leader had robbed the express car the gang retired in single file making the train men follow between them and the Rangers until they were out of danger. It was nearly an hour before the train men got back to the cars. The robbers did not molest the United States mails nor the passengers, the unexpected presence of the Rangers spoiled the plot. The express car was riddled with bullets. The messenger states that the robbers secured less than $500. It is generally believed, however, that a very large haul was made. Rangers accompanied the train to Weatherford where a pursuing party was sent out, but up to this evening no arrests were reported. The railroad officials professed to know who the robbers are and predict their capture.

Cannon, the Mormon.

NEW YORK, April 22.

The unseating of Cannon as a delegate in Congress from Utah, has brought to light some interesting documents bearing on his record, which have been in the possession of Clinton Merriam of this State for several years. Mr. Merriam, as member of Congress in 1874, intended to use them in an effort to oust Cannon from his seat; but before he could complete his plans the solid support of the Democrats, combined with a few Republicans, made the project impracticable, and it was postponed. The most important of the documents are three affidavits by Adolph Raisin, a member of the Mormon church, in which he sets forth, with much minuteness of detail, an interview with Cannon, in which the latter urged him to murder, in the interest of the church, Allmon W. Rabbit, then Secretary of Utah Territory.

An Anti-Chinese Petition from Milwaukee Orangemen.

NEW YORK, April 22.

The Tribune's Washington special says: A petition was received in the House to-day from Milwaukee, asking Congress to take measures to prevent immigration of Chinese and to pass a law similar to the Chinese bill. General Bragg, of Wisconsin, referring to it, very plainly said that that was exactly what he predicted when the Chinese bill was passed, and was in a great measure the cause of his opposition. A close examination of the petition and a comparison of the names by persons familiar with Milwaukee shows that all but 15 persons who signed it are Orangemen, and in their petition they complain of Irish who swore allegiance to a foreign Pope.

Ute Commissioners.

WASHINGTON, April 22.

It is stated to-day that the nomination of Henry Payne, James T. Gardner and Jackson Orr, of Colorado, will be sent to the Senate on Monday as members of the Ute Commission.

The Morey Letter Not Dead Yet.

CUMBERLAND, Md., April 22.

John I. Davenport, of New York, was here yesterday on business supposed to be in reference to the Robert Lindsay branch of the Morey letter affair which Davenport is investigating.

England and Chili Conspiring to Control the Proposed Canal.

NEW YORK, April 22.

Washington specials say: Private letters from Chili state that editorial comments in Chili are those of great glee, and the joy of the people there at the change in the policy begun by Blaine is open and avowed. There is no doubt that Chili has been receiving moral support from England, and it is the general belief that England and Chili have come to some understanding respecting the Isthmus Canal. It is everywhere believed that England intends to control either the whole canal or a fair share in it. In some way Chilians are kept informed of the purposes of this Government, and Trescott has been astonished to find that information which should have reached him first has been known to the people in Chili before he himself has received it officially or privately.

Emasculating the Chinese Bill.

NEW YORK, April 21.

A Washington correspondent says:

The Senate Foreign Affairs Committee has stricken out of the Chinese bill which passed the House on Monday the sections which forbid the naturalization of Chinamen and the immigration of skilled Chinese laborers. The Pacific coast Senators say they will make a strong effort to re-instate these sections, and the action of the Republican Senators in caucus this morning indicates that they will support the bill as it passed the House.

Cassidy this morning said Page's bill, as it passed, was not entirely satisfactory to the people of the Pacific coast, and that with these provisions stricken out it would be very much less satisfactory. He says he will never consent to the naturalization of any Chinese, whose status can be controlled by the Six Companies.

The Pacific coast men are very indignant that Eastern merchants are signing petitions against the Chinese bill, and threaten to boycott all Eastern merchants who sign such petitions.

The President's Recommendation.

NEW YORK, April 22.

The Post's Washington correspondent says that it is somewhat expected that the President will send a message to Congress recommending that the law be so amended that a posse comitatus can be used in Territories in the enforcement of order by local authorities when powerless. The message, it is believed, will have special reference to the Cow Boys in Arizona. The Democrats, of course, since their fight over the Army bill, will decline to consent to the use of the army as a posse comitatus in States; but there are indications that they might agree to amend the law with respect to Territories. Should such a bill be enacted, it would not be without influence in future Mormon complications.

An Oil-Car Victim.

LARAMIE CITY, April 22.

A Boomerang special from Carbon this afternoon says: A horrible accident occurred here this afternoon, resulting in the burning to death of Mrs. Theodore P. Henkel. So far as can be learned she was attempting to start a fire with coal-oil, and the can exploded with such force as to cause unconsciousness. Her body was burned so as to be unrecognizable. Mr. Henkel is a carpenter in the employ of the Union Pacific coal depot here.

A Bonus Interview.

KANSAS CITY, April 22.

The Times will publish a card from Mrs. Jesse James, in which she says the pretended interview published in the Globe-Democrat of St. Louis is utterly unfounded. If the proper time ever comes she will make a statement concerning her husband's life and history, but not at present.

A Horse Epidemic.

CHICAGO, April 22.

A form of epizootic, or pink eye, has appeared in many stables, and some estimates make the number of horses infected as much as one-third of all in the city. The disease, when early taken in hand, is readily treated, but in its earliest stages is apparently so harmless that it frequently gets beyond control from lack of attention.

Blaine Not Going to Europe.

WASHINGTON, April 22.

Blaine denies his going to Europe. In a recent conversation, when asked about his plans, he replied that it was impossible to say where he might be at a given date, adding that he might be in London. This is the sole origin of the report.

A $250,000 Fire.

LAKE CITY, Minn., April 22.

A fire broke out here at an early hour this morning in the vicinity of the Lyon's House, near the river, and swept back diagonally through the city, destroying every business block except that known as the Lyons House block. Loss estimated at $250,000. The fire is now under control.

More Clerks to be Appointed.

WASHINGTON, April 22.

It is stated to-day that the House Appropriation Committee will report in favor of increasing the clerical force in the pension office to a number sufficient to bring up the pension cases now so much in arrears.

A Crooked Mayor.

NEW YORK, April 22.

The Mayor of Long Island City has been arrested for the robbery of $114,000, which he is alleged to have misappropriated from the proceeds of sales of bonds. Bail $50,000.

The Kilbourne Case.

WASHINGTON, April 22.

General surprise is expressed at the verdict rendered in the Kilbourne case. It is the prevailing opinion that it is excessive and ought to be set aside. There is sharp criticism of the manner in which the Government interests in this case have been defended, or rather been neglected. District Attorney Corkhill, with other important cases on his hands, and one assistant, were supposed to defend Government interests, while able and influential counsel was engaged on Kilbourne's side. On the jury were some who had figured in rather conspicuous rings of the past, here and there. There are those who express the opinion that the Government's case was given away or allowed to go pretty much by default.

Transmitted direct between Germany and America, opened to-day with the following message from the Emperor to the President of the United States:

"I am very happy to express to you, Mr. President, by the first direct telegraphic transit between Germany and America, my satisfaction on the completion of a work by which friendly relations between both nations may be further enlarged."

The President, in replying to Emperor William's cable dispatch, said:

"Your message is received with much satisfaction. It is common with all the people of the United States, so many of whom still speak the German tongue in their homes, I share in the pleasure your Majesty expresses at the opening of this new line of communication, and in the faith that it will serve to promote friendly relations, which we desire and which it will be my aim to preserve and increase."

Pacific Coast Blood Horse Association.

The Spring meeting of this association will be held April 25th, 27th, and 29th, at the Bay District course. Thirteen races will be given at various distances. All the most noted horses in California will contend, and the stakes for young horses have a large number of entries. The interest in the Spring and Fall meetings of the association greatly increases, and the membership is being extended rapidly. It is the hope of the officers and members, that eventually it may occupy a position on this coast similar to that of the American Jockey Club or Saratoga Association at the East. The organization is not for the purpose of profit, but for the improvement of the breeding of the thoroughbred horse and the promotion of the time-honored sports of the turf. It numbers among its members some of the most prominent men on the coast. An invitation is acknowledged by the GAZETTE.

New Ice Seats.

John Hayes will commence delivering ice from the Essex Ice House on Monday, and intends remaining in the business the year round. His price won't exceed three-quarters of a cent per pound. He offers inducements never before offered in this market. Read his ad.

Capt. A. Moger has taken the contract to do the brick work on Hoffman's new brewery. The building will be 30x70 and two stories high. The work of laying up a fire wall will begin next Monday.

The most remarkable thing about Eastern visitors is their attenuated legs. The new style trousers place them in danger of being arrested "for having no visible means of support."

The road from Hoffman's brewery to the top of the hill beyond Kelly's nurseries is in a horrible condition, and needs attention. It is almost impossible to get through with a loaded wagon.

CANDELARIA.

What is Going on in that Busy Little Mining Camp. Candelaria, Nev., April 20.

EDITOR GAZETTE: Candelaria just now presents a lively appearance, but even better times are anticipated in the near future. The sound of the saw and hammer is heard upon every side, and gangs of men are busily employed grading the site of the Princess mill, laying water mains, and distributing pipes through the streets and to the hoisting works along the hillsides. Too much cannot be said in praise of the efforts of L. J. Haking, general manager of the White Mountain Water company, and his able Superintendent R. E. Doran, for overcoming so many obstacles and bringing such a fine quantity of water from so great a distance to moisten the palates of our thirsty citizens.

THE NORTHERN BELLE

And Mount Diablo mines are turning out the usual quantity of ore, the same being hauled to Bellville for reduction. Other mines in the vicinity are looking well and some of them are liable to be heard from soon in the way of ore developments.

At least two-thirds of the new portion of town has been and is being built by parties from Gold Hill and Virginia, who have torn down their residences and business houses in the two above-named places, and have moved them out here. Old shanties and cabins which were built from dry-goods boxes and barrel staves, and roofed with the tin taken from old cans of every description, during the time when lumber was selling at from $110 to $140 per thousand feet, are now considered as having outlived their usefulness and are being replaced by nicely-built and comfortable houses.

One thing I have noticed, viz: None of Reno's business men are coming out this way, which fact, I judge, is caused by their having enough to attend to in their own thriving little city. I came near forgetting S. D. Fannin, who has lots of friends in Reno. He has lately erected a fine restaurant adjoining his store here, and appears to be doing a rushing business. The neighborhood of the railroad depot is a lively one, the agent having about all he can attend to, in handling the quantities of merchandise arriving daily, not only for the immediate vicinity, but for shipment by team to Silver Peak, Gold Mountain, Montezuma, Columbus, Lida and Fish lake valleys. The merchants, and in fact everyone here, are anticipating a rush of people and capital into this section this Spring, and are making every preparation to meet the emergency. In my ramblings around I have noticed several newly painted signs which read as follows: "The RENO GAZETTE is the leading paper," etc. I say, "Success to your paper." Many copies are received here daily by different parties, and all are satisfied with its bright, newsworthy pages.

AN IMMIGRANT TRAIN.

The Contents of Four Cars Overhauled by a "Gazette" Reporter.

On the last west-bound immigrant train there were 144 adults and 20 children, all in various stages and conditions of uncleanness, weariness and disgust; but they seemed hopeful and happy, nevertheless. One car contained 40 men and eight women, with three children, direct from the Azores Islands, which they left on the 18th of March, bound for California. The farmers and laborers among them got 50 cents per day and "found," at home; mechanics received $1 25 per day. There were laborers, farmers, shoemakers, boiler-makers, clerks, a civil engineer, bakers, machinists, cheesemakers and dairymen, a druggist, butcher, book-keeper, and a minister and his family from Iowa—going to settle in Yolo county. The nationalities of the 144 persons were: American, German, Portuguese, Italian, Swiss, Canadian, French and Irish. There were 15 entire families. They will distribute themselves in California, Oregon and Washington Territory. They endeavored to make themselves at home on board the cars, and each seemed to have some occupation for a pastime. Some of the women were cooking; others were nursing babies; many men oblivious keeled up in their bunks, while young fellows were sparkling girls in the most natural manner. Some thought the reporter was chief of a labor bureau and had boarded the train to hire the whole band, so they unbosomed themselves to him. In a short time he had gained the confidence of Patsy O'Toole, who inquired about the poten-see, hinting that he could "so nately wurrak the worm of a shillit;" the minister was already engaged to chew gospel for hungry sinners; Hans Stievelmacher sought a place as baker, while Carl von Hansen expected to be engaged in advance as "fleischmeister." Luigi Caro looks for a position as "laborer per duo piastre il giorno," and Jacques LeMonlin "fiermier a trenta piastre per mohr." It fact they were sturdy, solid-looking timber for citizenship, ready for the first opening that will afford them a living, from expounding theology to exhorting an impenitent mule on an up-grade. Between such immigrants and the Chinese there will be an "irrepressible conflict." One or the other must go to the wall, for they can never amalgamate.

A Nice Stopping Place.

The Palace Hotel is a model hotel. No finer place in the State. Perkins & White have made it deservedly popular. John Fitzgerald, the general manager, makes every one feel at home, and if you happen to drop in in the evening, you will find Wm. Ilidge to attend to your wants, and he, being "up in the business," makes the patrons of the place happy. Frank Perkins knows a thing or two himself, and loses no opportunity to make his guest know he is in the business. Al White—well, everybody knows Al, and it's no use spinning any long yarn about him, and he is always on deck, and ready to show you every attention. Call in and be convinced.

Nevada Theater.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" is always popular with the theater going public. Though nearly a generation has elapsed since the play was produced, it still retains its drawing qualities. Slavery has long since been abolished, yet the play seems to have a magnetic force which draws like a porous plaster. The story of Uncle Tom and the death of little Eva are familiar to everybody, and it is safe to say never was better presented than by Jay Rial's troupe. The company will be here next Monday and Tuesday nights, and from the number of seats taken it seems to be the desire of the whole town to witness the presentation.

Sterling Powers.

SOOTHING THE INVALID.

A few drops of SOZODONT mixed with water, and placed in the mouth of the invalid, will refresh him. It aromatizes what else would be dry and uncomfortable, and gives infinite pleasure and incites appetite. No nurse should neglect SOZODONT.

SLICKENS.

The Rich Old Placer Diggings of Mono County.

J. C. McTarnahan, a former member of the Nevada Legislature, has for the past year been making preparations for hydraulicking at Dogtown Gulch, in the Old Mono Diggings, where the ground, in 1861-2, was very rich in gold. He left Reno to-day, en route to Bridgeport, to commence operations, which will be continued until the ice and snow of next Winter compel him to abandon the work. He has a long flume already constructed, and an unlimited supply of water from Green Creek is ready to be turned on. Twenty men will be employed night and day upon a bank of gravel 12 to 20 feet high. The ground is known to be good, and there are thousands of acres equally valuable in that vicinity. There will be no trouble about "slickens," as the land below the tail-race is of an alkali nature, and will be greatly benefited by the sand and sediment which may be deposited on it. In fact, Mr. McTarnahan has been offered a respectable sum if he will divert his tailings upon a certain farm in the vicinity. The few small spots over which the slickens must necessarily flow, unless impounded, and which will not be benefited by them, have been bargained for at a fair price per acre, if damaged; so that everything between the farmer and miner has been amicably arranged prior to commencing operations. The gold obtained at Dogtown is very fine, worth $18 per ounce, while over the ridge, a mile distant, in Old Mono proper, it is worth not more than $13. Several citizens of Reno are interested in this venture. It is to be hoped that it will be a profitable one.
